That was the most interesting annoncement contained in the annual statement of the Charles Frohman company concerning plans for the coming theatrical season as issued yesterday.

During the last season Miss Adams has been playing in a series of her old Barris successes—'The Little Minister,' 'Peter Pan,' 'Quality Street,' 'Re'. Heriour will close on July 1 and she will take a vacation until October, when 'The Little Minister' will be revived for a short engagement out of town.

Other Frohman plans include the apparance of Ethel Barrymore in a new play by Hubert Henry Davies, which will be given its first performance in America On its reception here will depend its production in London and Paris, Miss Barrymore will be seen in a dual role.

William Gillette is temporarily to desert plays of his own writing and will play a season of twenty weeks, six of which will be in New York. His vehicles is by a prominent English author, whose name has not been disclosed. Otts Skinner has a play written for him by Booth Tarkington. It is a comedy on an American theme. Blanche Bates will open her season early in October in a play by William Somerset Maugham.

By arrangement with Selwyn & Co. Ann Murdock will he seen at the Lyceum Theatre early in August in "Please Help Emilis," a comedy by H. M. Harwood, which is just at present a part of the London theatrical season. Margaret Maugham, although her engagement critical for any of the plays made from the Empire Theatre in "Caroline," by W. E. M. SWEENEY A MONSIGNOR.

Third N. Y. Pastor Within Week to Be Honored by Pope.

The Rev. Edwin M. Sweeney, who has been pastor of the Roman Catholic Church of the Ascension, 167th street between Broadway and Amsterdam avenew since January, 1901, has been made a monsignor by Pope Benedict. This makes the third pastor of a New York church to be raised to the dignity of a monsignor within a week. The two others are Father Chidwick and Father Panny.

Father Sweeney now is privileged to wear the purple robes and will assume the title of the Very Reverend Monsignor. Through his elevation he also becomes a member of the Pope's household, with a member of the Pope's household, with the title of Domestic Prelate.

Mgr. Sweeney is at the head of one of the wealthlest and most influential parishes in the city, the boundaries of which extend from Riverside Drive to Central Park West. He became the pas-tor on the death of the late Rev. Nich-olas Reinhart.

Since his installation he has built one of the finest church edifices on the West Side. He also built the rectory.

Gray constantly, made heroic efforts to save his life.

Dr. Gray was 59 years old and had been a resident of Jersey City since 1882, when he entered the City Hospital as an interne. After completing his course he associated himself with Dr. B. A. Watson, a noted surgeon of that time, and later succeeded to Dr. Watson's practice. He spent two years in Europe in the early '90s advancing himself in surgery. He was for a number of years head consulting surgeon at the North Hudson Hospital in Weehawken. In 1888 Dr. Gray married Catherine Atkinson, a daughter of the Rev. John Atkinson, who was then paster of the West Side M. E. Church in Jersey City. They had no children. For the last two years Mrs. Gray has been in a sanayears Mrs. Gray has been in a sana-torium because of a mental disorder. Two months ago Dr. Gray suffered an attack of appendicitis. He was operated upon after insisting that only local anæsthetics be used. He returned home two weeks ago and resumed his practice against the advice of his friends.

Because he was not as strong as before the operation and unable to perform his duties as well as previously he became despondent. It preved upon his mind so that while in his bedroom last Tuesday after refusing to head the last Tuesday, after refusing to heed the advice of Dr. Miner that he take a long vacation.
